Germans Admit British Ad-

Fortifications

(By International News Service)
Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Forces, Sept. 11—With the city of Luxembourg liberated and deep new penetrations made in the Ardennes Forest, Canadian troops unleashed a full-scale attack against Le Havre today.

Immediate penetrations were effected in the northern outskirts of the great English Channel port. High ground to the northeast was taken in heavy fighting.

Widespread mine fields were encountered in the Le Havre area and German coastal guns north of the city offered stiff resistance to the attack, which was preceded by a heavy artillery bombardment.

Canadian troops mopped up the entire coast from Gravelines to Zeebrugge except at Dunkerque, which was by-passed.

The German agency FNB meanwhile admitted further British advances into Belgium's fortifications.

(By International News Service) British and American forces were smashing their way toward the Reich today at four points while the U. S. Seventh Army drove northward from the Riviera invasion coast in a push to close the Belmont gap through which the Nazis are streaming to the temporary safety of the Siegfried line.
The "holy soil" of Germany, as it is described by Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels, has come under the attack of American artillery which at last reports had been moved within firing distance of the frontier.

Smashing their way northward from the Riviera invasion coast, armor-paced Yank and French columnists drove their way into the outskirts of Dijon, the vital seven-way rail junction through which the battered German forces have been pouring toward the Reich.

Perkasie Boy Dies; Had Infantile Paralysis

PERKASIE, Sept. 11—An eight-year-old Perkasie lad died Friday, a victim of infantile paralysis.
Death of Ronald Wenholt occurred in Abington Hospital, the boy having been admitted to that institution two weeks previous.

The lad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wenholt. His parents and eight sisters and brothers survive.

The Perkasie boy is the second to die in the Bucks-Montgomery district since the summer outbreak of paralysis. The first victim was Foster G. Weber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Weber, Whitehall road, Jeffersonville, who died August 29th.

Since the outbreak, there have been 36 cases in Montgomery and six in Bucks.

CANADIAN TROOPS ON OUTSKIRTS OF LE HAVRE

With the First Canadian Army, France—Canadian troops which opened a full-scale assault on Le Havre today and won high ground near the port have fought their way into the northern outskirts of the city itself the attack was preceded by heavy bombardment which began last night. Other Canadian units continued to enlarge their bridgehead across the Ghent canal south of Bruges. Bruges itself has not been entered. The Germans retreating toward the Scheldt are fighting delaying action all the way. Canadian infantry are endeavoring to mop up the channel ports of Pouligne, Calais and Dunkirk.

5TH ARMY MOVES AGAINST GOTHIC LINE OUTPOSTS

Rome—With Lieut. Gen. Clark's Fifth Army cleaning the Nazis out of two cities and moving against outposts of the Gothic line, Allied forces in northern Italy scored large advances today and moved nearer a showdown battle for the vaulted Gothic line. German resistance increased on the left flank while on the Adriatic flank the Allied forces continued to make gains. General Clark's men routed the Germans from the cities of Prato and Livorno, northeast of Florence. North of Lucca, Yank patrols already had established contact with forward positions of the Gothic line.

ENEMY CLEARED OUT OF VICINITY OF BEVERLOO

With Netherlands Troops at Beerzelen, Belgium—Reconnaissance units of the Netherlands Brigade—which yesterday held the Allied bridgehead across the Albert Canal against a German counter-attack—inflicting heavy casualties and taking many prisoners—this morning patrolled as far as Beverloo and sent back word that they had cleared the enemy out of the vicinity. The bridgehead at Beerzelen, 15 miles from the Netherlands—now is firmly established.

HONOR LATE SEAMAN
AT SPECIAL SERVICE

Hulmeville Church Filled with Relatives and Friends of Late Harry C. Smith

CHAPLAIN S P E A K S

HULMEVILLE, Sept. 11—A special service conducted in Neshaming Methodist Church yesterday afternoon honored the memory of Harry Clayton Smith, S. 2/c, who died in the service of his country.

A large company of relatives and friends gathered in the main auditorium of the edifice to pay tribute to the memory of the young man who at the age of 18 years lost his life when the "Maddox" was sunk off the coast of Sicily on July 10, 1943. Beautiful baskets and vases of flowers were arranged within the church, tokens of esteem from relatives, friends, organizations with which he was affiliated, and residents of the community.

The seaman was the son of Mrs.
Mamie Smith and the late Harry Smith.

Three members of the clergy were in the pulpit, the Rev. Richard R. Gay, pastor of Neshaminy Church, who conducted the service; Capt. Edgar W. Davis, of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, and district chaplain of the Fourth Naval District; and the Rev. Albert W. East-burn, vicar of Grace Episcopal Church and chaplain of Jesse W.
Soby Post, No. 148, American Legion.

The service was preceded by an organ prelude of selected hymns, played by Miss Clara L. Hillick. A summary of Seaman Smith's service record was given by the Rev.
Mr. Gay, followed by Scripture and memorial prayer; vocal duet "Beyond the Sunset," the Misses Grace H. Hillick and Adeline E. Reetz; brief address by George Thorpe, representing the Soby Post; presentation of Gold Star certificate to Mrs. Smith by the American Legion

Acute Heart Attack Is Fatal To Twp. Resident

Mrs. Anna M. Fisher, widow of John A. Fisher, died suddenly at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Stackhouse, Morrisville, yesterday morning.
Mrs. Fisher, who was in her 76th year, had not been well since last February. She had been visiting at the Stackhouse home, and when suddenly stricken at breakfast Sunday morning, died instantly of an acute heart attack.

Her home was on Mill Creek Road, Bristol Township. She is survived by a brother, Henry Stackhouse, radiator, and several nieces and nephews.

The Rev. Arthur F. Gibson, of Philadelphia, will conduct the service at the Moulden funeral chapel, 133 Otter street, Wednesday, at two
p. m. Burial will be in Emille cemetery. Friends may call Tuesday evening.

PENN STATE TO HOLD
CLASSES HERE AT NIGHT

Extension Services Announce Series of Courses To Be Given in H. S.

REGISTER SEPT. 25, 26

The Extension Services of The Pennsylvania State College have announced that another series of evening classes in war training courses will be conducted in Bristol this fall similar to those which were conducted last winter. Classes in various phases of engineering, science, and management will be conducted on a tuition-free basis under the sponsorship of the United States Office of Education, through a federal appropriation which provides the instruction to any local person who desires instruction for only the cost of the textbooks.
Representatives of the College have been in contact with most of the industries in this area, and the courses which will be offered are those which will meet the need for technical instruction in these industries.

Registration will be held on Monday and Tuesday nights, September 25 and 26, at the Bristol high school between seven and nine o'clock, where interviews and complete information are available to any person who desires information or who wishes to register. Classes will begin the following week, and will be held on Monday and Wednesday nights.

Bible School Registrant Is Showered With Gifts

Miss Pearl Greenlee, Walnut street, was the guest of honor at a surprise personal shower at the home of Miss Ida Roberts, Walnut street, Wednesday evening. Miss Greenlee left on Saturday for Philadelphia Bible School where she will matriculate. The evening was enjoyed in a social way and refreshments were served.

The invitation list included: the Misses Evelyn DenBleyker, Marie Hart, "Betty" Greenlee, Frances, Esther and Vera Tomlinson; Jane Argus, "Betty" Bowers, Dorothy Worthington, Hilda Taylor; Mrs.
Paul Tomlinson, Mrs. Lehman Strauss, Mrs. Greenlee, Mrs. G.
Weik, Mrs. N. Dugar, Bristol; Miss Catherine Arnoldi and Catherine dington; the Misses Anna Kirby, Dorothy Waters, Anna Wilkie and Thelma Ausley, Croydon; the Misses Edna Copeland and Lillian Painter, Newportville; Miss Helen Hertzler, Tullytown.

It seemed to be the opinion of the majority that, upon arrival of the official news that the war with Germany is over, church bells, factory whistles and the fire alarm (long blast), be sounded as the official start of the observance.
This will be a signal for all citizens

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

(Distributed by McNaught Syndicate, Inc.)

'Clear It Through Sidney'

Washington, Sept. 9.
THE QUESTION of whether Mr.
Hillman with his CIO Political Action Committee, his American Labor party and his various Communist affiliates and support is aiming to capture the Democratic party and run the Government was raised very early in this campaign. It is interesting that no politician, either Democratic or Republican, takes the smug denials of Mr. Hillman seriously. Why should they?

THE FACT is that in a number of the more electorally important States, outside the South, the regular Democratic organizations are relatively feeble affairs, in which figure many men who are only perfunctorily for Mr. Roosevelt and have no great heart in the fight, though the exigencies of politics compel them to make it. The real Roosevelt strength in these States, aside from the CIO, is what the Dunn Survey calls "The Bought Vote." It consists of the vast army of Federal jobholders, who have reached a total well above three million in the country, and whose continuation on the pay roll depends upon the continuation of Mr.
Roosevelt in the White House.

But, the real energy, the real zeal and the real force behind the

THE THING is too plain to dispute.
No one, for example, questions that Mr. Hillman and his affiliated groups are making a far greater contribution to Mr. Roosevelt's fourth-term campaign than are the Democratic National Committee or the Democratic State machines, outside of the Solid South. The

LETTERS TO AN AMERICAN FAMILY

No. V.
(Doylestown Intelligencer, September 11th)

Dear John and Mary Citizen:—

Thanks for the acknowledgment. Your questions and those of Mary's prove that I at least have succeeded in setting to work your curiosity, which is the front door of wisdom.

As to the answers, we will come to them presently.
The purpose of my last two letters was to show how the judicial process has been broken down and detoured by the Roosevelt administration.

A little thought will convince you that if you get in trouble today over any Federal regulations—and they touch your home, your job and your pocketbook—you will find yourselves being ruled by men, not law—you will find yourselves at the mercy of politically-appointed New Deal office-holders, who may or may not be the sort of person you believe ought to be in charge.

These political straw-bosses will decide both the law and the facts in your case. The intent of the Constitution was that law be decided by courts, facts by a jury composed of men and women from your community—persons much like yourselves.

Both of these American guarantees of equal justice for all are denied in an immense variety of matters now covered almost solely by Federal orders and interpretations.

Should you accuse these public servants of incompetence, personal prejudice, or political favoritism, then a thing astounding for a so-called Democracy will take place. They will go through the mockery of trying themselves—and you, of course, will not be surprised when they find themselves not guilty.

Let me remind you that this policy of placing the real government of you as individuals into the hands of appointed hirlings, the system we call "bureaucracy," is not a war development. The practice has been going on since the first year President Roosevelt took office—and this despite the fact that when he was running for the Presidency the first time, Mr. Roosevelt pledged himself against this policy in the most unmistakable terms.

The war was only the excuse, not the reason, for the recent vast extension of the fixed New Deal policy of placing the actual control of the lives, property and activities of American citizens in politically appointed "swarms of Officers" (as the Declaration of Independence puts it) who are subject to neither appeal nor review.

What can you do about it? The answer is obvious.
We are not a free people if the right of jury trial and of review of the constitutionality of Federal laws and their executive interpretations continue to be denied us.

Even if we grant the extreme position that President Roosevelt himself is a safe custodian of our liberties, and that his appointees are all sincere, competent and impartial (which I need not say is abundantly disproven by

FORTY-THREE CASES TO BE HEARD BY COURT

Grand Jury Session of Criminal Court Will Open Today

LIST IS HERE GIVEN

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 11—Forty-two new cases and one continued case are listed on the calendar for the September term of Bucks County Criminal Court, which opens today with the Grand Jury in session. Traverse jury trials will not get under way until Monday, Sept. 18. The second week of trial court will start Sept. 25.

There are but two defendants charged with drunken driving on the September list, the smallest drunken driver list in years. This is due to the fact that a number of cases are disposed of at the miscellaneous Quarter Sessions Court sessions, and also to the fact that drunken driving has decreased considerably during the past six months according to police records.

There is an arson case listed in addition to involuntary manslaughter, burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods, assault and battery cases are out in front in number for the September term.

The complete list of cases as compiled by District Attorney Edward G. Biester and Assistant District Attorney Willard Curtin, of Morrisville, is as follows:

Continued Cases
Bertha Elliott, arson (2 counts).

New Cases

Authoress Tells of Similar

REPORTS ARE HEARD

Fire Loss in County in Three

Death by Fire

DUBLIN, Sept. 11—One of the largest meetings held for many years was conducted by Bucks County Firemen's Association in the station of Dublin Volunteer Fire Co. Saturday evening. More than 500 men and women attended, and thoroughly enjoyed a talk by Pearl Buck, internationally-known authoress and winner of the Nobel prize in literature.

Separate business sessions were held by the firemen and by the Ladies' Auxiliaries of the county during the early evening, the women making their way from their meeting place at 10 o'clock to hear with the firemen in the fire station the talk by Miss Buck. Her subject was "China," and from her wealth of knowledge of the Chinese through her years of residence in the Orient she ably held the interest of the gathering. Miss Buck dwelt mainly on the fact that the thoughts, feelings and ambitions of the Chinese are akin to those of Americans, telling that people of these two nations can thus naturally understand each other better than can peoples of some other countries.

William L. Stackhouse, Doylees-town, presided at the business meeting of the firemen. The report for the past quarter showed: 53 alarms; 78 field and woods fires; eight barn fires; five house fires; one store fire; eight garage and out-building fires; loss in county, $75,985; insurance carried, $45,400; property at risk, $157,100; death from fire, Percy Joe Smith, aged 5,

Soldier Who Was Wounded Tells of His Experiences

HEADQUARTERS, EUROPEAN THEATER OF OPERATIONS, Sept.
11—Pvt. Salvatore Bellini, who was wounded when a German plane dive-bombed the hospital in France to which he was driving Nazi cap-sultives, has fully recovered and is now at a U. S. Army replacement depot in England.

"I was running a shuttle service from the field to the beach hospital carrying wounded German prisoners," said Pvt. Bellini. "I was sitting in my ambulance when the first bomb dropped. I jumped out and ran about 50 yards and just as I hit the ground a piece of shrapnel hit me on the leg." The Americans were treating more than 100 enemy wounded in the hospital when the attack came, according to the Pennsylvania soldier, and most of them were killed.

"The German medical officers cared for their own casualties as well as American wounded," said Pvt. Bellini. "This helped a lot as many of our medical men had been killed."

SPEEDING YULE GIFTS

Those who are under the impression that the Army isn't tremendously interested in having them send Christmas packages to the troops overseas and in getting them into the hands of the service men before the holidays, haven't heard of the great effort made by Army engineers in completing the new $3,500,000 post office in Long Island City, New York, to expedite the shipment of this year's holiday mail to America's fighting men.

Ground was broken for the huge Army post office concentration center on May 22 and it was planned to complete the building by September 1, before the Christmas mail rush got under way. The center, which contains more than 500,000 square feet of floor space and covers 14½ acres, occupies the site of the former Madison Square Garden Bowl.
A total of 379,000 concrete blocks was used in its construction, and 1,000 workmen were employed 10 hours a day at the peak period of building.

On September 1, Col. Edgar W. Garbisch, New York district engineer of the United States Army Engineers, turned the building over to Army postal authorities for occupancy.

The Army center will handle parcels, newspapers and magazines, everything except letter mail, for the millions of men and women stationed on 11 fronts.
The services of 10,000 civilian post office employees and 4,000 soldiers will be utilized to handle the parcels when the Christmas mail rush begins on September 15. Three railroad spurs inside the building will help to keep the mail moving, and electricallydriven vehicles will handle intramural distribution.

Colonel Garbisch says the men who constructed the mail center worked at top efficiency during the peak of the heat spell without a murmur because "they realized what the job meant to the troops on the fighting fronts." It is now up to civilians to keep the new post office busy by sending Christmas packages to the service men.

Of course, the building was constructed to handle parcels and newspapers all the year 'round, but the Christmas mailing season is almost at hand, and obviously that comes first. It would be a mean-spirited civilian who would neglect to send Yuletide gifts to the men winning the greatest war in history for Uncle Sam.

"While B-29's strike Japan, workers strike at home," comments a paper, in Detroit, of course.

Apparently the government's policy is to give the fighting men all the news from home so long as it contains no information.

Nazi prisoners of war in California object to working extra hours, probably on the theory that when in America do as the Americans do.

Another pressure group includes housewives who are using that method for canning.

ECHOES OF THE PAST

(By Courier Staff Member)

Review of the news as it appeared in the Bucks County Gazette issue dated at Bristol Sept. 27, 1883. The Gazette, a weekly newspaper published in Bristol, was discontinued following its merger with the Courier.

Bristol Division, No. 107, Sons of Temperance, have elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Worthy patriarch, Miss Mamie L. Hutchins; worthy associate, T. B. Haines; recording scribe, Charles MacCorkle; treasurer, Edward Barton; financial scribe, Mrs. Anna H. Stradling; chaplain, William Hoot; conductor, Wesley Hoot; assistant conductor, Mrs. Eliza Lindall; inside sentinel, Miss Lizzie Booth; outside sentinel, Edward Clark; trustees, Jonathan Lovett, William Hoot, Joseph Leafe.

The shop and dwelling of Lewis Foster, who lives in the "stone row" on Lafayette street, was entered on Tuesday night, and tobacco, cigars and clothing valued at about $35 taken.

The old iron railroad bridge near the Mill street crossing has been removed, and the freight house on the north side of the tracks has been set back to make room for the additional tracks.

A. M. Parsons, of Falls township, was one of the fortunate peach growers this year. The yield from his orchards reached 15,000 baskets.

A cow on the track stopped the "Chicago Limited" at Bristol last Tuesday.

Mill street needs sweeping.

The mill of Samuel Appleton, on Buckley street, is approaching completion. The roof is being put on.

The following officers were elected in Hopkins Lodge, No. 87, I. O.
O. F., last evening, to serve for the ensuing term: Noble grand, Christopher Hetherington; vice grand, E. W. Minster; financial secretary, Clarence N. Pelrice; treasurer, John M. Callanan.

(Following items culled from Bucks County Gazette, issue of Oct.
4, 1883.)

The salary of the postmaster of Bristol has been increased from $1,500 to $1,700. The increase takes place from the 1st of October. This adjustment was made on the basis of the four quarters ending June 30, 1883.

Bristol has 13 telephones.

The Doylestown Fair is being held this week. The farmers in this section of the county manifest but little interest, owing probably to the fact that it is much easier to reach the Mt. Holly fair than our county seat.

During her absence to the city last Friday the dwelling of Mrs.
Whitley on Lafayette street, was entered by thieves and a sum of money stolen. The thieves pried open the kitchen window and ransacked the house.

The match game of cricket between the club from Brooklyn, N.
Y., and the Bristol club played here last Saturday resulted in the defeat of the visitors by a score of 54 to 24.

The men with the bears are again in town and attract the undivided attention of the small gamblers of the streets.

Statistics of the Bristol borough public schools for the month of September, 1883. . . . Whole number in attendance during month, 589; an increase of only one compared with corresponding month last year. Average attendance, 470; whole number who attended every day, 151. W. L. Delap, superintendent of schools.

The officers of Mohican Tribe of Red Men were installed last Monday. The following chiefs were raised: Prophet, Harry B. Banes; sachem, Charles Strumfels; senior sagamore, Joseph Vandercif; junior sagamore, Edward Woodington; chief of records, Thomas B.
Douglass; keeper of wampum, William H. Bailey. The trustees are Dr. W. T. Potts, Samuel Scott and Harry Smith. The lodge numbers 124 members, the increase in the last six months is 12. The tribe is worth over $10,000.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

fourth-term effort is furnished by the CIO-Communist leadership.
There are to be found Mr. Roosevelt's most ardent and sincere supporters. The character and volume of the praise which they heap upon him, and the fervor of their efforts in his behalf, make the activities, including publicity, of the Democratic National Committee appear pallid and puny in comparison. Certainly, no posted person thinks that Chairman Hannegan, of the National Committee, is as forceful or important a figure in this campaign as is Mr. Hillman, head of the PAC of the CIO, and boss of the American Labor party.

AND should Mr. Roosevelt be re-elected, certainly no one would contend that Mr. Hannegan had done as much to re-elect him as Mr. Hillman. It is as absurd to say now as it would be absurd to say then that Mr. Roosevelt owes as much to Mr. Hannegan as to Mr. Hillman. It was different in 1932 and 1936. In those campaigns,

John E. Wildasin; and orchestral numbers were directed by Willard Meyers. Words of welcome were expressed by Oswin Keeler, president of Dublin Fire Co., and by Clarence Schnell, president of Dublin borough council.

It was reported that Perkasie and Dublin companies have new ambulances; and Doylestown a new piece of apparatus. The latter two were on display. Announcement so far as practical politics was concerned, the President's debt was deeper to Mr. James A. Farley than to any other. It was he who ran his campaign, supplied the brains and the managerial ability. And, in 1940, it was Mr. Flynn. In none of those campaigns was there any figure to measure against the national chairman.

BUT, this time it is very different.
This time the figure of Hillman towered above the figure of Hannegan and everybody knows it. At Democratic headquarters and the White House, with both of which Mr. Hillman is in constant touch, the phrase "Clear it through Sidney" is frequently heard. As reported in the New York Times, and repeated by Representative Luce, it was supposed to have been used first by the President. At any rate, a great many administration political matters are being cleared through Sidney. And Sidney and his friends are working night and day for the fourth term with a vigor, zeal and determination not found anywhere else.

THE HILLMAN denials of any ambition to take over the Democratic party are clearly made to avoid unfavorable reaction to his becoming too conspicuous and powerful before the election. But, Mr. Hill-man's Communist affiliations make no such denial. On the contrary, the Daily Worker tells in detail of the Communist penetration into the Democratic ranks, gives instructions for deeper penetration, deplores the fact that the Democratic party is "still partially a bourgeois party" but speaks hopefully of the day when "it will become completely a people's party." In the event of a Roosevelt re-election, Mr. Hillman certainly would be in the saddle as the most powerful politician in the country with a more formidable machine than that of the regular Democrats.

HE AND the Communists deliberately have chosen the Democratic party as the instrument through which they intend to work politically. Anyone who thinks that they will not be on top if the Democratic ticket wins in the coming election is deliberately being unrealistic. The victory will be more theirs than anyone else's—and it is impossible to doubt that they will reap rewards in the shape of party and governmental influence and recognition greater than ever before. Not to believe that is to disregard the logic of politics as well as the Roosevelt record.

on the ninth at 7:45 o'clock at Chalfont.
Lloyd Crouthamel gave a resume of the Dublin fires, telling that four barns were afire at once for the local men to battle. Plumsteadville company reported that a portable pumper has been purchased.
In a short address the Hon.
Thomas B. Stockham, Morrisville, paid tribute to the late Mrs. James E. Groome, of Yardley.
The finance committee, with Lloyd Crouthamel in charge, reported raising over $1200 for death benefit fund.

The following officers and committees were named by President Stockhouse: Honorary vice presidents: George Duke, Morrisville; Joseph Winder, Falls Township; Fred Kutzer, Croydon; Harold Det-

FALLS HIGH WILL HAVE FOOTBALL IX AGAIN THIS SEASON

School Decides To Again Be Represented After Two Years' Absence

DE RISI TO BE COACH

35 Boys Have Been Out For The Practice Season

FALLSINGTON, Sept. 11.—The third of a cleated shoe against a football is again sounding at the Falls Township High School.

After an absence of two seasons from the gridiron, the school has again decided to be represented in football. During the past two years, the Falls boys have played nothing but "touch" football.

Coach "Mike" DeRisi has had 35 boys out for practice. The boys are all inexperienced and are learning from scratch. The candidates are enthused and pepped up at the return of football and this may make up for their lack of experience.

Only two of his youngsters have had football experience. Phil Di Natale and Joe Cutchineal. They were freshmen when football was disbanded and were members of the squad. DiNatale played end while Cutchineal was a center.

Although Coach DeRisi hasn't picked his squad as yet, it appears as if he will have a light backfield but fast. His line will be heavy but those boys who carry weight are also fast on their feet, so the prospects for the first season are not so black.

The boys who have reported for line berths are: The Kellert twins, Harold and Joe; Ronald Davis, Paul Sterling, Frank Burton, Sherwood Taylor, Andy Kish, Joe Belardo, Tod Williams, Albert White, Bill McSherry, Eugene Lynch, Marvin Teters, Eddie Johnson, Calvin Brown, and Cutchineal.

The backs who are candidates are: Harry Wilson, Phil DiNatale, Fred Hibbs, Jim Peterson, Clint Pursell, Leroy Lynch, George Hartley, Jake Bower, George Gilton, Mike Pezza and George Taylor.

The Orange and Black has a seven-game schedule. It will open its season with Bensalem at Bensalem on October 6th. Then it will play two games each with St. Francis, Langhorne, and Newtown.

Coach DeRisi is being assisted by "Cy" Bachman, who gathered his football experience at Penn State.

EDGELEY YOUTH TEAM GOES INTO 1ST PLACE

The Edgely team went into first place in the Bristol Youth League yesterday afternoon by beating St. Francis, 19-5, on the latter's field. It was the final scheduled game of the season for the Edgelyites, who hold first place by but a few points.

The winners made a total of 23 hits, while "Benny" Bintliffe was holding St. Francis to six blows. The Edgelyites drove the St. Francis ace hurler, Mario Cupo, from the mound in the third frame.

Leading the winners with the stick were Frank Elker and Bintliffe, who had four safe blows each, and Snelder and Rittler, who hit safely three times each. Edgely scored in every frame except the fifth.

expressed his optimism for the success of the campaign. The fact that the mortgage on the camp has been paid off and that all the money raised can be used for the furtherance of Scouting in the council is especially gratifying. He expressed his interest in having scouting given to boys in all parts of Bucks county because of its character building and citizenship training values.

Rev. A. B. Davidson, of Doylestown, a vice-president of the council, gave an inspiring talk on the interest of boys in scouting and desire of many boys to be scouts who will have that privilege when the campaign is brought to a successful conclusion. Scout Executive Raymond W. Hoxworth expressed the desire of the scout leaders of the council to bring many more men into their ranks with proper training and an opportunity to take part in the camping program of Bucks county.

The meal was served by a group of volunteer women from various parts of the council.

Doylestown Plans V-Day Celebration

within a reasonable time, in the court house, where the planned religious and patriotic service will take place. There will be no speech-making, but there will be prayers and singing.

Following the Court House service, it is planned then to stage the parade which will also be planned ahead of time.

During the court house service and the parade proper, local tap room, hotel and club owners and managers will be asked to co-operate by remaining closed, possibly for a two or three hour period. After that, the observance will be carried on individually.

The committee will ask factories and business places to close if they so desire, to take part in the observance. Other details will be worked out by the committee.

A number of persons present were parents with boys in the service, most of them overseas in the thick of the action. They were emphatic in their belief that a brief religious service should start off the observance in Doylestown.

Burgess Vandine said that he is naming as members of his committee persons whom he thinks have had experience in organizing parades and completing details for community celebrations. Every organization in Doylestown as well as individuals not connected with any organization is being asked to do their part in planning the observance immediately.

Says Wife Refused To Leave Mother's

relatives and relatives-in-law. Hinkle paid his mother-in-law $10 a week for board and lodging; his wife earned hers by the help she gave.

At the expiration of the three-day period of not talking to each other, Hinkle left the place with a load of hay, telling his wife that he was not going to return and, according to her testimony, accusing her of not wanting to have any children. That was on or about July 1, 1944, and this week Mrs. Hinkle stated that she was expecting a baby about the first of the coming year and that was why she was asking for support.

to make a home for her either at his sister's or at any place that she might be able to find, but that she refused to live any where but at her mother's. When later he furnished an apartment and went out to ask his wife to move into it with him, she refused to go because some woman with whom her husband was acquainted before his marriage occupied another apartment in the same building.

The testimony disclosed that Mrs. Hinkle had possession of her husband's war bonds, his title papers to his automobile and her mother's note for $400 which sum Hinkle had loaned to her.

Judge Boyer offered to continue the case until October so that Mrs. Hinkle would have time to select a place where she would be willing to live with her husband but she refused to live any where but at her mother's. Judge Boyer dismissed the charges against Hinkle and discharged him but directed that he should pay the court costs.

Ernest Carey, 53, Negro, who came from Virginia and has been living in Morrisville for several years, was sentenced by Judge Boyer to pay the costs and to serve from two months to a year in the county prison for resisting arrest.

Carey was charged by Andrew Thompson, Morrisville constable, with being drunk and creating a disturbance in front of the Morrisville Gardens on the evening of August 23, 1944. When he refused to move away and go to his home, the officer arrested him and had to take him in an automobile to the police station. Carey fought Thompson to such an extent that assistance was necessary to get him in and out of the car.

Albert Worman, 40, Point Pleasant, and John Sheaf, 37, Lambertville, N. J., pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods before Judge Boyer and were given sentences of from 1½ to three years for Worman, and nine months to three years for Sheaf both sentences to begin from date of commitment and to be served in the county prison. They are also to pay the costs. Worman was employed by George Wiley, owner and operator of a quarry at Point Pleasant. On the night of July 27, Worman and Sheaf met at a carnival in Lambert-ville and later Sheaf drove Worman and his wife to Point Pleasant. They stopped at the quarry to get some of the company gasoline there for the car and according to Worman, Sheaf suggested that they take an electric drill that was in the office and sell it and divide the money. They put the drill in the car and drove to Lambertville where Sheaf kept it overnight. The next day the two men took the drill to Trenton and disposed of it to an electrical concern.

Honor Late Seaman At Special Service

chaplain, the Rev. Mr. Eastburn; prayers for consolation and guidance, the Rev. Mr. Eastburn; message by Chaplain Davis; Scriptural consolation from the New Testament and pastoral comments, the Rev. Mr. Gay; pastoral prayer for guidance; benediction, Capt. Davis; period of silent meditation; postlude.

Past Commander Thorpe, in his address reminded that "We are gathered here today to renew our loyalty to God and country, and to pay tribute to Harry Smith who gave his life for his country. May what we do and say here today typify the unconquerable spirit of the American people." Mr. Thorpe spoke of the futility of mere words to express to the family of the late seaman the deep and abiding sympathy felt by all. "May you feel that he is at rest and in endless peace!" Echoed taps were then sounded by two members of the Cadet Drum and Bugle Corps of the American Legion.

The Rev. Mr. Eastburn read excerpts from a letter written by Stelwin Brown, of the U. S. Navy, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, here, in which Brown paid high tribute to the late seaman.

Chaplain Davis, in addressing members of the Smith family and the large number assembled, mentioned that "the highest, best and richest tribute that can be paid Seaman Smith is the gathering of his friends from this community to honor his memory." He reminded that "every honest effort in life leaves its impress," adding that metal and marble markers are not the only way of memorializing an individual. "He lives in the hearts and homes and memories of the people of this community. That is the most lasting and eternal. May we feel that in this our sadness also comes that flash of consolation—as we have come into this church, dedicated to holy ministry and service, to honor a seaman—that we instinctively turn to God in our hour of sorrow and grief. To who else could we turn? Our hope ultimately is in the Eternal."

The Rev. Mr. Gay, in addressing the congregation reminded that the young man "is at home and at rest. That we believe and proclaim this day. Those of us who look into the face of Christ will not turn away confused. We will find hope. Do not sorrow as those without hope."

Among the organizations represented at the service were: Jesse W. Soby Post, No. 148, American Legion; the American Legion Auxiliary; Boy Scouts; and Shepherds Delight Lodge, No. 1, Shepherds of Bethlehem.

THE NEARER THE NAVY MOVES TO TOKIO... THE MORE TANKERS SUN MUST BUILD!

SAIPAN, TINIAN, GUAM... all now in American hands! A brilliant advance across the Pacific which has thrilled every American. But now that we have actually broken into the inner ring of Japan's defenses... what next?

Armchair strategists have it all figured out! Bombers taking off from the Marianas to hurl destruction on the Japanese homeland. Great Naval task forces roving the ocean wastes toward the China coast... the Philippines... challenging the Jap Navy to come out and fight!

All very true... and all coming in time! But the Navy and the Air Forces have a more immediate problem. Bombers can not take off regularly from those advanced positions without aviation gasoline. The fleet can not roam at will until facilities for speedy refueling are provided.

Our front line has moved nearer to Japan... but that has stretched our supply line. That longer supply line calls for more and more tankers... those speedy, big capacity T-2's... built by Sun Ship.

Today the Navy needs tankers more than battleships. At its Chester Yards, Sun Ship is launching six T-2 tankers each month. If more workers were available, Sun Ship would be building additional tankers to keep oil and gas flowing over that constantly lengthening "floating pipe line" on which our armed forces depend for the fuel that makes victory possible. But six big T-2 tankers every month is a record in which the workers of Sun shipyards can take justified pride for they form the lifeline that supplies the fuel to keep ships, planes, tanks... all our mechanized might in victorious action!

DEEP PENETRATIONS MADE IN ARDENNES FOREST, WITH CITY OF LUXEMBOURG LIBERATED; HIGH GROUND TO NORTH OF LE HAVRE IS TAKEN IN HEAVY FIGHTING

Widespread Mine Fields Encountered in Area of Big Port

RESISTANCE IS STIFF

Germans Admit British Advances in Belgian Fortifications

(By International News Service)
Supreme Headquarters, Allied Expeditionary Forces, Sept. 11—With the city of Luxembourg liberated and deep new penetrations made in the Ardennes Forest, Canadian troops unleashed a full-scale attack against Le Havre today.
Immediate penetrations were effected in the northern outskirts of the great English Channel port. High ground to the northeast was taken in heavy fighting.
Widespread mine fields were encountered in the Le Havre area and German coastal guns north of the city offered stiff resistance to the attack, which was preceded by a heavy artillery bombardment.
Canadian troops mopped up the entire coast from Gravelines to Zeebrugge except at Dunkerque, which was by-passed.
The German agency FNB meanwhile admitted further British advances into Belgium's fortifications.

British and American forces were smashing their way toward the Reich today at four points while the U. S. Seventh Army drove northward from the Riviera invasion coast in a push to close the delfort gap through which the Nazis are streaming to the temporary safety of the Siegfried line.
The "holy soil" of Germany, as it is described by Propaganda Minister Joseph Goebbels, has come under the attack of American artillery which at last reports had been moved within firing distance of the frontier.

Smashing their way northward from the Riviera invasion coast, armor-paced Yank and French columns drove their way into the outskirts of Dijon, the vital seven-way rail junction through which the battered German forces have been pouring toward the Reich.

Perkasie Boy Dies; Had Infantile Paralysis

PERKASIE, Sept. 11—An eight-year-old Perkasie lad died Friday, a victim of infantile paralysis. Death of Ronald Wenhold occurred in Abington Hospital, the boy having been admitted to that institution two weeks previous.
The lad is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wenhold. His parents and eight sisters and brothers survive.

With the First Canadian Army, France—Canadian troops which opened a full-scale assault on Le Havre today and won high ground near the port have fought their way into the northern outskirts of the city itself. The attack was preceded by heavy bombardment which began last night. Other Canadian units continued to enlarge their bridgehead across the Ghent canal south of Bruges. Bruges itself has not been entered. The Germans retreating toward the Scheldt are fighting delaying action all the way. Canadian infantry are endeavoring to mop up the channel ports of Pongloie, Calais and Dunkirk.

Rome—With Lieut. Gen. Clark's Fifth Army cleaning the Nazis out of two cities and moving against outposts of the Gothic line, Allied forces in northern Italy scored large advances today and moved nearer a showdown battle for the Gothen line. German resistance increased on the left flank while on the Adriatic flank the Germans continued to make gains. General Clark's men routed the Germans from the cities of Prato and Fivola northeast of Florence. North of Lucca, Yank patrols already had established contact with forward positions of the Gothic line.

With Netherlands Troops at Beeringen, Belgium—Reconnaissance units of the Netherlands Brigade—which yesterday held the Allied bridgehead across the Albert Canal against a German counter-attack—inflicting heavy casualties and taking many prisoners—this morning patrolled as far as Beverloo and sent back word that they had cleared the enemy out of the vicinity. The bridgehead at Beeringen, 15 miles from the Netherlands—now is firmly established.

HONOR LATE SEAMAN AT SPECIAL SERVICE

Hulmeville Church Filled with Relatives and Friends of Late Harry C. Smith

HULMEVILLE, Sept. 11—A special service conducted in Neshaminy Methodist Church yesterday afternoon honored the memory of Harry Clayton Smith, S. 2/c, who died in the service of his country.

A large company of relatives and friends gathered in the main auditorium of the edifice to pay tribute to the memory of the young man who at the age of 18 years lost his life when the "Siddox" was sunk off the coast of Sicily on July 10, 1943. Beautiful baskets and vases of flowers were arranged within the church, tokens of esteem from relatives, friends, organizations with which he was affiliated, and residents of the community.

The seaman was the son of Mrs. Mamie Smith and the late Harry Smith.

Three members of the clergy were in the pulpit, the Rev. Richard R. Gay, pastor of Neshaminy Church, who conducted the service; Capt. Edgar W. Davis, of the Philadelphia Navy Yard, and district chaplain of the Fourth Naval District; and the Rev. Albert W. Eastburn, vicar of Grace Episcopal Church and chaplain of Jesse W. Soby Post, No. 148, American Legion.

The service was preceded by an organ prelude of selected hymns, played by Miss Clara L. Hlick. A summary of Seaman Smith's service record was given by the Rev. Mr. Gay, followed by Scripture and memorial prayer; vocal duet "Beyond the Sunset," the Misses Grace H. Hlick and Adeline E. Reetz; brief address by George Thorpe, representing the Soby Post; presentation of Gold Star certificate to Mrs. Smith by the American Legion.

Acute Heart Attack Is Fatal To Twp. Resident

Mrs. Anna M. Fisher, widow of John A. Fisher, died suddenly at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Stackhouse, Morrisville, yesterday morning. Mrs. Fisher, who was in her 76th year, had not been well since late February. She had been visiting at the Stackhouse home, and when suddenly stricken at breakfast Sunday morning, died instantly of an acute heart attack.

Her home was on Mill Creek Road, Bristol Township. She is survived by a brother, Henry Stackhouse, Yardley; and several nieces and nephews.

The Rev. Arthur F. Gibson, of Philadelphia, will conduct the service at the Morden funeral chapel, 133 Otter street, Wednesday, at two p. m. Burial will be in Emile cemetery. Friends may call Tuesday evening.

POSTPONE MEETING

The monthly meeting of the W. T. U. scheduled for Tuesday, September 12th, is postponed until Tuesday, September 19th.

PENN STATE TO HOLD CLASSES HERE AT NIGHT

Extension Services Announce Series of Courses To Be Given in H. S.

The Extension Services of The Pennsylvania State College have announced that another series of evening classes in war training courses will be conducted in Bristol this fall similar to those which were conducted last winter. Classes in various phases of engineering, science, and management will be conducted on a tuition-free basis under the sponsorship of the United States Office of Education, through a federal appropriation which provides the instruction to any local person who desires instruction for only the cost of the textbooks. Representatives of the College have been in contact with most of the industries in this area, and the courses which are being offered are those which will meet the need for technical instruction in these industries.

Registration will be held on Monday and Tuesday nights, September 25 and 26, at the Bristol high school between seven and nine o'clock, where interviews and complete information are available to any person who desires information, or who wishes to register. Classes will begin the following week, and will be held on Monday and Wednesday nights.

THE GREAT GAME OF POLITICS

By FRANK R. KENT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9. THE QUESTION of whether Mr. Hillman with his CIO Political Action Committee, his American Labor party and his various Communist affiliates and support is aiming to capture the Democratic party and run the Government was raised very early in this campaign. It is interesting that no politician, either Democratic or Republican, takes the smug denials of Mr. Hillman seriously. Why should they?

THE FACT is that in a number of the more electorally important States, outside the South, the regular democratic organizations are relatively feeble affairs, in which figure many men who are only perfunctorily for Mr. Roosevelt and have no great heart in the fight, though the exigencies of politics compel them to make it. The real Roosevelt strength in these States, aside from the CIO, is what the Dunn Survey calls "The Vast Army." It consists of the boy army of Federal jobholders, who have reached a total well above three million in the country, and whose continuation on the pay roll depends upon the continuation of Mr. Roosevelt in the White House.

BUT, the real energy, the real zeal and the real force behind the

No. V.
(Doylestown Intelligencer, September 11th)

Dear John and Mary Citizen:—

Thanks for the acknowledgement. Your questions and those of Mary's prove that I at least have succeeded in setting to work your curiosity, which is the front door of wisdom.

As to the answers, we will come to them presently. The purpose of my last two letters was to show how the judicial process has been broken down and detoured by the Roosevelt administration.

A little thought will convince you that if you get in trouble today over any Federal regulations—and they touch your home, your job and your pocketbook—you will find yourselves being ruled by men, not law—you will find yourselves at the mercy of politically-appointed New Deal office-holders, who may or may not be the sort of person you believe ought to be in charge.

These political straw-bosses will decide both the law and the facts in your case. The intent of the Constitution was that law be decided by courts, facts by a jury composed of men and women from your community—persons much like yourselves.

Both of these American guarantees of equal justice for all are denied in an immense variety of matters now covered almost solely by Federal orders and interpretations.

Should you accuse these public servants of incompetence, personal prejudice, or political favoritism, then a thing astounding for a so-called Democracy will take place. They will go through the mockery of trying themselves—and you, of course, will not be surprised when they find themselves not guilty.

Let me remind you that this policy of placing the real government of you as individuals into the hands of appointed hirings, the system we call "bureaucracy," is not a war development. The practice has been going on since the first year President Roosevelt took office—and this despite the fact that when he was running for the Presidency the first time, Mr. Roosevelt pledged himself against this policy in the most unmistakable terms.

The war was only the excuse, not the reason, for the recent vast extension of the fixed New Deal policy of placing the actual control of the lives, property and activities of American citizens in politically appointed "swarms of Officers" (as the Declaration of Independence puts it) who are subject to neither appeal nor review.

What can you do about it? The answer is obvious. We are not a free people if the right of jury trial and of review of the constitutionality of Federal laws and their executive interpretations continue to be denied us.

Even if we grant the extreme position that President Roosevelt himself is a safe custodian of our liberties, and that his appointees are all sincere, competent and impartial (which I need not say is abundantly disproven by

FORTY-THREE CASES TO BE HEARD BY COURT

Grand Jury Session of Criminal Court Will Open Today

LIST IS HERE GIVEN

DOYLESTOWN, Sept. 11—Forty-two new cases and one continued case are listed on the calendar for the September term of Bucks County Criminal Court, which opens today with the Grand Jury in session. Traverse jury trials will not get under way until Monday, Sept. 18. The second week of trial court will start Sept. 25.

There are but two defendants charged with drunken driving on the September list, the smallest drunken driver list in years. This is due to the fact that a number of cases are disposed of at the miscellaneous Quarter Sessions Court sessions, and also to the fact that drunken driving has decreased considerably during the past six months according to police records.

There is an arson case listed in addition to involuntary manslaughter, burglary, larceny, receiving stolen goods, assault and battery cases are out in front in number for the September term.

The complete list of cases as compiled by District Attorney Edward G. Biester and Assistant District Attorney Willard Curtin, of Morrisville, is as follows:

Continued Cases

Bertha Elliott, arson (2 counts).

New Cases

Operating an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquor; George J. Epler, Casimer Joseph Dudek.

Operating a motor vehicle after operating privilege had been revoked; Bruno Nonini.

BUCKS CO. FIREMEN AND AUXILIARIES HEAR PEARLS OF BUCK

Authoress Tells of Similar Interests of Chinese and Americans

Fire Loss in County in Three Months is $7,985; One Death by Fire

DUBLIN, Sept. 11—One of the largest meetings held for many years was conducted by Bucks County Firemen's Association in the station of Dublin Volunteer Fire Co., Saturday evening. More than 500 men and women attended, and thoroughly enjoyed a talk by Pearl Buck, internationally-known authoress and winner of the Nobel prize in literature.

Separate business sessions were held by the firemen and by the Ladies' Auxiliaries of the county during the early evening, the women making their way from their meeting place at 10 o'clock to hear with the firemen in the fire station the talk by Miss Buck. Her subject was "China," and from her wealth of knowledge of the Chinese through her years of residence in the Orient she ably held the interest of the gathering. Miss Buck dwelt mainly on the fact that the thoughts, feelings and ambitions of the Chinese are akin to those of Americans, telling that people of these two nations can thus naturally understand each other better than can peoples of some other countries.

William L. Stackhouse, Doylestown, presided at the business meeting of the firemen. The report for the past quarter showed 53 alarms; 75 field and woods fires; eight barn fires; five house fires; one store fire; eight garage and out-building fires; loss in county, $76,985; insurance carried, $45,400; property at risk, $157,100; death from fire, Percy Joe Smith, aged 5, of Mastin Farms.

Soldier Who Was Wounded Tells of His Experiences

HEADQUARTERS EUROPEAN THEATER OF OPERATIONS, Sept. 11—Pvt. Salvatore Bellesi, who was wounded when a German plane dive-bombed the hospital in France to which he was driving Nazi casualties, has fully recovered and is now at a U. S. Army replacement depot in England.

"I was running a shuttle service from the field to the beach hospital carrying wounded German prisoners," said Pvt. Bellesi. "I was sitting in my ambulance when the first bomb dropped. I jumped out and ran about 50 yards and just as I hit the ground a piece of shrapnel hit me on the leg." The Americans were treating more than 100 enemy wounded in the hospital when the attack came, according to the Pennsylvania soldier, and most of them were killed.

"The German medical officers cared for their own casualties as well as American wounded," said Pvt. Bellesi. "This helped a lot as many of our medical men had been killed."

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Arthur D. Sargis Pastor
Eddington Presbyterian Church
Eddington

"Lord thou art the strength of my life. Of whom or of what shall I be afraid?" I thank thee for the faith that I have in thee and in thy kindly providence. Increase that faith. Make it stronger day by day and enlarge its function in my life until it removes from my soul, thru Christ, the burden of sin, and from my mind not only the shadows of doubt but the mountains of anxiety and fear that cast those shadows. Above all else, give me now, this day, and ever that peace that the world cannot give, through Him who has ever given it to His disciples, even Jesus Christ, my Lord. Amen.

FALLS HIGH WILL HAVE FOOTBALL IX AGAIN THIS SEASON

School Decides To Again Be Represented After Two Years' Absence

DE RISI TO BE COACH

35 Boys Have Been Out For The Practice Season

FALLSINGTON, Sept. 11.—The third of a cleared shoe against a football is again sounding at the Falls Township High School.

After an absence of two seasons from the gridiron, the school has again decided to be represented in football. During the past two years, the Falls boys have played nothing but "touch" football.

Coach "Mike" DeRisi has had 35 boys out for practice. The boys are all inexperienced and are learning from scratch. The candidates are catfished and pepped up at the return of football and this may make up for their lack of experience.

Only two of his youngsters have had football experience. Phil Di Natale and Joe Cutchinal. They were freshmen when football was disbanded and were members of the squad. DiNatale played end while a freshman, but Coach DeRisi has converted him to a backfield man. Cutchinal is a center.

Although Coach DeRisi hasn't picked his squad as yet, it appears as if he will have a light backfield but fast. His line will be heavy but those boys who carry weight are also fast on their feet, so the prospects for the first season are not so black.

The boys who have reported for line berths are: The Kellett twins, Harold and Joe; Ronald Davis, Paul Sterling, Frank Burton, Sherwood Taylor, Andy Kish, Joe Belardo, Tod Williams, Albert White, Bill McSherry, Eugene Lynch, Marvin Teters, Eddie Johnson, Calvin Brown, and Cutchinal.

The backs who are candidates are: Harry Wilson, Phil DiNatale, Fred Hibbs, Jim Peterson, Clint Pursell, Leroy Lynch, George Hartley, Jake Bower, George Gilton, Mike Pezza and George Taylor.

The Orange and Black has a seven-game schedule. It will open its season with Bensalem at Bensalem on October 6th. Then it will play two games each with St. Francis, Langhorne, and Newtown.

Coach DeRisi is being assisted by "Cy" Bachman, who gathered his football experience at Penn State.

EDGELEY YOUTH TEAM GOES INTO 1ST PLACE

The Edgely team went into first place in the Bristol Youth League yesterday afternoon by beating St. Francis, 19-5, on the latter's field. It was the final scheduled game of the season for the Edgelyites, who hold first place by but a few points.

The winners made a total of 23 hits, while "Benny" Bintliffe was holding St. Francis to six blows. The Edgelyites drove the St. Francis ace hurler, Mario Cupo, from the mound in the third frame.

Leading the winners with the stick were Frank Elker and Bintliffe, who had four safe blows each, and Snider and Rittler, who hit safely three times each. Edgely scored in every frame except the fifth.

Big results at so little expense; Courier classified advertising.

Laboratory work will be complete, with supplies and equipment being brought here from State College.

Co. Scout Drive For Funds Gets Under Way

expressed his optimism for the success of the campaign. The fact that the mortgage on the camp has been paid off and that all the money raised can be used for the furtherance of Scouting in the council is especially gratifying. He expressed his interest in having scouting given to boys in all parts of Bucks county because of its character building and citizenship training values.

Rev. A. B. Davidson, of Doylestown, a vice-president of the council, gave an inspiring talk on the interest of boys in scouting and desire of many boys to be scouts who will have that privilege when the campaign is brought to a successful conclusion. Scout Executive Raymond W. Hoxworth expressed the desire of the scout leaders of the council to bring many more men into their ranks with proper training and an opportunity to take part in the camping program of Bucks county.

The meal was served by a group of volunteer women from various parts of the council.

within a reasonable time, in the court house, where the planned religious and patriotic service will take place. There will be no speech-making, but there will be prayers and singing.

Following the Court House service, it is planned then to stage the parade which will also be planned ahead of time.

During the court house service and the parade proper, local tap room, hotel and club owners and managers will be asked to co-operate by remaining closed, possibly for a two or three hour period. After that, the observance will be carried on individually.

The committee will ask factories and business places to close if they so desire, to take part in the observance. Other details will be worked out by the committee.

A number of persons present were parents with boys in the service, most of them overseas in the thick of the action. They were emphatic in their belief that a brief religious service should start off the observance in Doylestown.

Burgess VanDine said that he is naming as members of his committee persons whom he thinks have had experience in organizing parades and completing details for community celebrations. Every organization in Doylestown as well as individuals not connected with any organization is being asked to do their part in planning the observance immediately.

relatives and relatives-in-law. Hinkle paid his mother-in-law $10 a week for board and lodging; his wife earned hers by the help she gave.

At the expiration of the three-day period of not talking to each other, Hinkle left the place with a load of hay, telling his wife that he was not going to return and, according to her testimony, accusing her of not wanting to have any children. That was on or about July 1, 1944, and this week Mrs. Hinkle stated that she was expecting a baby about the first of the coming year and that was why she was asking for support.

to make a home for her either at his sister's or at any place that she might be able to find, but that she refused to live any where but at her mother's. When later he furnished an apartment and went out to ask his wife to move into it with her, she refused to go because some woman with whom her husband was acquainted before his marriage occupied another apartment in the same building.

The testimony disclosed that Mrs. Hinkle had possession of her husband's war bonds, his title papers to his automobile and her mother's note for $400 which sum Hinkle had loaned to her.

Judge Boyer offered to continue the case until October so that Mrs. Hinkle would have time to select a place where she would be willing to live with her husband but she refused to live any where but at her mother's. Judge Boyer dismissed the charges against Hinkle and discharged him but directed that he should pay the court costs.

Ernest Carey, 53, Negro, who came from Virginia and has been living in Morrisville for several years, was sentenced by Judge Boyer to pay the costs and to serve from two months to a year in the county prison for resisting arrest.

Carey was charged by Andrew Thompson, Morrisville constable, with being drunk and creating a disturbance in front of the Morrisville Gardens on the evening of August 23, 1944. When he refused to move away and go to his home, the officer arrested him and had to take him in an automobile to the police station. Carey fought Thompson to such an extent that assistance was necessary to get him in and out of the car.

Albert Worman, 40, Point Pleasant, and John Sheaf, 37, Lambertville, N. J., pleaded guilty to a charge of burglary, larceny and receiving stolen goods before Judge Boyer and were given sentences of from 1½ to three years for Worman, and nine months to three years for Sheaf both sentences to begin from date of commitment and to be served in the county prison. They are also to pay the costs. Worman was employed by George Wiley, owner and operator of a quarry at Point Pleasant. On the night of July 27, Worman and Sheaf met at a carnival in Lambert-ville and later Sheaf drove Worman and his wife to Point Pleasant. They stopped at the quarry to get some of the company gasoline there for the car and according to Worman, Sheaf suggested that they take an electric drill that was in the office and sell it and divide the money. They put the drill in the car and drove to Lambertville where Sheaf kept it overnight. The next day the two men took the drill to Trenton and disposed of it to an electrical concern.

chaplain, the Rev. Mr. Eastburn; prayers for consolation and guidance, the Rev. Mr. Eastburn; message by Chaplain Davis; Scriptural consolation from the New Testament and pastoral comments, the Rev. Mr. Gay; pastoral prayer for guidance; benediction, Capt. Davis; period of silent meditation; postlude.

Past Commander Thorpe, in his address reminded that "We are gathered here today to renew our loyalty to God and country, and to pay tribute to Harry Smith who gave his life for his country. May what we do and say here today typify the unconquerable spirit of the American people." Mr. Thorpe spoke of the futility of mere words to express to the family of the late seaman the deep and abiding sympathy felt by all. "May you feel that he is at rest and in endless peace!" Echoed taps were then sounded by two members of the Cadet Drum and Bugle Corps of the American Legion.

The Rev. Mr. Eastburn read excerpts from a letter written by Stelwin Brown, of the U. S. Navy, to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, here, in which Brown paid high tribute to the late seaman.

man Smith is the gathering of his friends from this community to honor his memory." He reminded that "every honest effort in life leaves its impress", adding that metal and marble markers are not the only way of memorializing an individual. "He lives in the hearts and homes and memories of the people of this community. That is the most lasting and eternal. May we feel that in this our sadness also comes that flash of consolation—as we have come into this church, dedicated to holy ministry and service, to honor a seaman—that we instinctively turn to God in our hour of sorrow and grief. To who else could we turn? Our hope ultimately is in the Eternal." The Rev. Mr. Gay, in addressing the congregation reminded that the young man "is at home and at rest. That we believe and proclaim this day. Those of us who look into the face of Christ will not turn away confused. We will find hope. Do not sorrow as those without hope." Among the organizations represented at the service were: Jesse W. Soby Post, No. 148, American Legion; the American Legion Auxiliary; Boy Scouts; and Shepherds Delight Lodge, No. 1, Shepherds of Bethlehem.

SAIPAN, TINIAN, GUAM... all now in American hands! A brilliant advance across the Pacific which has thrilled every American. But now that we have actually broken into the inner ring of Japan's defenses... what next?

Armchair strategists have it all figured out! Bombers taking off from the Marianas to hurl destruction on the Japanese homeland. Great Naval task forces roving the ocean wastes toward the China coast... the Philippines... challenging the Jap Navy to come out and fight!

All very true... and all coming in time! But the Navy and the Air Forces have a more immediate problem. Bombers can not take off regularly from those advanced positions without aviation gasoline. The fleet can not roam at will until facilities for speedy refueling are provided.

Our front line has moved nearer to Japan... but that has stretched our supply line. That longer supply line calls for more and more tankers... those speedy, big capacity T-2's... built by Sun Ship.

Today the Navy needs tankers more than battleships. At its Chester Yards, Sun Ship is launching six T-2 tankers each month. If more workers were available, Sun Ship would be building additional tankers to keep oil and gas flowing over that constantly lengthening "floating pipe line" on which our armed forces depend for the fuel that makes victory possible. But six big T-2 tankers every month is a record in which the workers of Sun shipyards can take justified pride for they form the lifeline that supplies the fuel to keep ships, planes, tanks... all our mechanized might in victorious action!
